Demos of Dixie Set Bolt Plan

WAKULLA SPRINGS, Fla., Feb. 7 (AP)—The conference of southern governors gave the Democratic national administration an ultimatum today to cease attacks on "white supremacy" or face full-fledged revolt in the south.

The conference adopted unanimously a resolution by Gov. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, setting 40 days as the limit for a new meeting of governors to review developments.

Alternate Proposal Dies
The conference rejected an alternate proposal by Gov. Fiebig of Mississippi, which would have called for a meeting of southern Democratic leaders to consider a bolt from the Democratic party.

It also ignored a resolution by Gov. James Folsom of Alabama, who advocated support of "white" candidates pledged to uphold tradition of "white supremacy" in the Democratic national convention.

To Meet Again
The southern governors' conference today agreed to meet again within 40 days at a time and place determined by its chairman. In the interim, a special committee will give "careful consideration" to problems arising from President Truman's program of civil rights for Negroes.

The committee will recommend "joint and common action" to make the south's displeasure heard in Washington and in the top councils of the Democratic party.

Forces Joined
Governors Wright of Mississippi, McDowell of Tennessee, Jester of Texas, Caldwell of Florida, Lantry of Arkansas and Folsom of Alabama joined Thurmond in castigating Truman's program.

"They took exception to demands for anti-lynching and anti-poll tax legislation, an end to racial segregation, and enactment of a permanent commission to bar racial discrimination in employment."

"We're Been Betrayed"
Said Governor Lantry of Arkansas, "We have been betrayed by the Democratic party of the Democratic party. We have been sacrificed to the gods of dishonor."

Four clubs are expected to meet at the annual conference of the National Lutheran church in Twin Falls, Idaho, Feb. 10-12.

Devotional services will be conducted at the hotel during the conference. The meeting will be held during the afternoon and evening.

He urged council members to recommend to the board of directors that the youth council be organized as a separate entity, not as a part of the city or county government.

Nose-Diving Grain Prices Hit Stubborn Resistance, But Food Costs Chipped

Plunging grain prices ran into their first stubborn resistance in four days today, but the sharp slump in values already has chipped a few cents off the retail cost of groceries. At least four important staples in the American diet—bread, flour, lard and some pork cuts—will cost less Monday in some of the nation's chain stores as a direct result of skidding grain prices.

The possibility of generally lower retail pork prices in the near future has been brightened by declining hog prices and a backup of supplies in the wholesale markets, caused by continued resistance to high prices.

Hog price averages at Chicago dropped 90 cents during the week to $23.75, compared with $24.85 a year earlier, marking one of the few times since the war any major commodity has declined on a year to year basis.

In Pittsburgh, a meat packer predicted that housewives would be able to buy meat cheaper in most week than at any time in the last three months.

Wheat prices fluctuated widely on the Chicago board of trade. Wheat, the mainstay in the food price structure, closed nine cents lower to 4 1/4 cents a bushel tonight. The sharp change in price was hailed but corn continued to plunge. (Closing prices are given on page 2, column 3.)

Russ Offer to Buy 87 U. S. Loaned Ships

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Diplomatic authorities said today that Russia has offered to buy 87 ships loaned to the U. S. by war-time lend-lease.

A sale would be a separate transaction from the general sale of Russia's $1,200,000,000 over-all lend-lease account.

Lend-lease commodities, revived with the arrival in December of Ambassador Alexander S. Panayukhin, have been making slow progress. Officials said that the United States and the Soviet are "far apart" in their views of what would be a fair settlement.

Protests Related
Moscow's latest proposal, charging American officials with 10 specific acts of law-breaking over Soviet shipping, has been met with protests.

Prospects are that a reply to the charge that those flights violated "freedom of commercial navigation" will be made in two weeks or more. It is the latest in a series of Moscow protests against American military actions abroad. The United States rejected these charges.

HARD DAY FOR EXTREMISTS

The state department certainly gave the apologists for Russia and the ultra-socialists a hard day by releasing the secret Nazi-Soviet agreements and correspondence. May be nobody was much surprised, but the documented evidence, and the implications, punctured the arguments of extreme left and right appeasers.

It gave the final blow to the old fable that the Kremlin signed a non-aggression pact with Hitler just at the time while Russia prepared for the coming Nazi attack. Russia scarcely would have prepared for a summer invasion by sending Germany 532,000 tons of grain and 232,000 tons of petroleum in the first four months of 1941.

The Kremlin must have been trying to live up to its end of the deal to divide Europe and Asia to merit these words, written by a Nazi foreign office official in May, 1941: "The quantities of raw materials now contracted for are being delivered punctually by the Russians, despite the heavy burden this imposes on them, especially with regard to grain, is a notable performance."

Ambassador Joseph H. Davies and many others believed the stalling fable in good faith. But when later events made it unbelievable, there were still some who persisted in clinging to it. Now the fiction is demolished.

The published documents were equally tough on the assumption that all Russia wanted to be left alone, and that it is American aggression that has goaded her to retaliation. That assumption is the basis of the foreign policy that Henry Wallace and Sen. Glen Taylor would sell to the country through a third party.

It could be clear now, if it was not before, that Premier Stalin and his colleagues saw in 1939, that the coming war might provide the right setting for a big step toward world domination. The veteran revolutionists of 1917 had used the chaos of World War I to overthrow the czar and, indifferent to the fate of the czar's allies, to make peace with Germany.

Marx's world revolution didn't come off in the years that followed. But if the world's workers wouldn't arise and embrace communism, perhaps they could have communism thrust upon them. Hitler's war seemed to offer the chance.

Who can doubt that the Russian plan was to make a deal for a divided Europe and then, with the Nazis victorious but exhausted, fight Hitler for his share of the spoils? The secret documents now revealed only make it clearer that the Russian government is interested only in itself. It will bide its time, and agree or disagree only as agreement or disagreement seems to serve its purpose.

Film Stunter Dies in Leap From Bridge

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7 (UP)—Famed Golden Gate bridge claimed its 10th known victim today, but for the first time the victim had wanted to live.

Alfred (Dusty) Rhodes, 38, Hollywood stunt man and movie double, tore away from two bridge workers yesterday and leaped 200 feet to his death in the bay below. A coast guard boat fished his body from the water 20 minutes later.

Rhodes made his leap for the sake of publicity. He had planned it for five months.

Browned After Fall

The fall did not cause his death, even though it is equal to dropping off a 25 story building. An autopsy showed that Rhodes drowned. He suffered only minor internal injuries from hitting the water.

Rhodes was garbed in a man-of-war costume. He wore a wetsuit rubber suit over two ordinary suits, football hip pads and a kapok life jacket.

He wore a football helmet and a Mac West type life vest.

Three Parachutes

A harness was tied to three small parachutes, the type used with aircraft flares, was slung over the costume.

Rhodes' wife, Lorraine, 27, watched the leap from the south tower. She then returned to her home at 1000 Chicago St. with her two children, Rocky, 5, and Cora, 9.

Mrs. Rhodes said her husband believed the parachute, while not large enough to retard the speed of the fall, would help him strike the water feet first.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 7 (UP)—Movie stunt man Alfred (Dusty) Rhodes painfully tested "like a scientist" every move of the jump off the Golden Gate bridge that killed him, his manager said today.

"It's hard to believe he failed," Mrs. Susan Todd said. "He was really so cautious."

"Clean-up" Drive Planned in Burley

BURLEY, Feb. 7.—At the Thursday meeting of Burley Junior Chamber of Commerce plans were made for a spring "clean-up week" for the city April 11 to 17.

Donald Gray, president, said that April 14 has been chosen as the actual "clean-up" day, but the entire week will be devoted to cleaning trash and refuse from city streets, alleys and yards. The 100 city blocks in Burley will be divided with a "clean-up" captain for each half block. School children will be asked to cooperate in the work.

The project, while primarily sponsored by the Jaycees, will be conducted through cooperation of all organizations and citizens, Gray said. City officials have pledged the use of trucks and other equipment for hauling trash. Business houses also will be asked to help.

The Jaycees also will sponsor a donkey basketball game Tuesday. The Lions club will meet the Jaycees team at the high school gymnasium at 8 p. m.

FBI Nabs Six In Revolution Aircraft Plot

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (UP)—The FBI today announced the arrest of six men, including pilots of two American war surplus bombers, in connection with a revolutionary plot against "a Latin American country," presumably Venezuela.

Two of the men were pilots of surplus B-24 "Liberator" bombers which, the FBI said, were "to be used in a bombing mission" as part of the revolutionary plot.

Taken in Three Cities

The six men were arrested in New Orleans, Panama and Miami, Fla. Five were charged specifically with violating the neutrality act in flying B-24 bombers from Bush field, Ga., to Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, on Jan. 26.

One of the men now is under conviction of stealing guns from the government. He is Edward Browder, Jr., who was arrested at Miami. The FBI said Browder, a native of Amarillo, Tex., recruited the group to fly the planes to Central America, but he himself remained in the United States.

Had Two Bombings

Two bomb sights which Browder had in his possession were seized by the FBI at Augusta, Ga., on Jan. 27 the FBI said.

Browder has been on bond pending appeal from a one-year sentence for conspiracy to violate the theft of government property statute.

The FBI did not give any details of the alleged revolutionary plot. But Guillermo Serrilla Sacaca, Nicaragua's ambassador, previously had said that 27 "Venezuelan revolutionaries" were arrested when the alleged plot was nipped in Nicaragua. Reportedly the revolutionaries planned to bomb Venezuela's capital, Caracas.

Murray Tells Aides to Snub Wallace Party

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (UP)—Pres. Harry Truman handed CIO officials a stern ultimatum today which said in effect: Renounce Henry Wallace's third party—or get out.

CIO sources said that choice was plainly implied in Murray's letter accepting the resignation of Lee Pressman, who had been mutual counsel for the CIO and United Steelworkers for 12 years.

Out to Aid Wallace

Pressman said he quit to be free to work for Wallace. Murray replied that the decision would eliminate "embroidering yourself or me in difficulties concerning matters of fundamental CIO policy."

CIO right wingers said the reply adds up to a blunt "follow CIO policy or resign." The CIO executive board voted a fortnight ago to oppose Wallace.

Two Others in Office

Two other prominent Wallace backers had CIO offices. They are Albert J. Fitzgerald, president of United Electrical workers and one of the nine CIO vice presidents, and Harry Briggs, president of the International Longshoremen and Warehousemen's union and CIO director for northern California.

Murray reportedly has authority to oust them from their CIO posts, but not their union presidencies.

Polio Report

CHAGRESMAN, Feb. 7.—Mrs. HAZEL HARRIS, chairman of the polio drive, sponsored by the Legion auxiliary, reports that the net profit from the polio dance was $72.23.

Contributions were $155.99 and collections in the dime boxes were $13.24, which totals $371.31 for the benefit of the polio drive.

Cassia's Fund for Polio Expected to Hit Nearly $6,000

BURLEY, Feb. 7.—With contributions continuing to come in, Cassia county march of dimes chairman, James Keith, said he believes the county will reach $6,000 this year. This will be almost triple the amount given last year.

Recent reports show that a dance at Almo last week contributed $80 to the polio fund. The largest single amount was raised at the Livestock Commission company sale which produced $1,263 through auction of a lamb.

The Oakley community, with Eugene Pickett as chairman, sent more than $700 to the fund. Several other communities have yet to report on the amount they have raised. Keith expects to make a complete report early next week, with Vern Mitchell, city chairman, and Harvey Rogers, treasurer, assisting with the final count.

Pauley Steps Out of Army Chief's Office

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Edwin W. Pauley, two-time target of Republican senatorial investigations, resigned today as a special assistant to the secretary of the army.

He had served since last September as a special consultant to Sec. Kenneth G. Ryan on industrial mobilization and procurement procedures. His work is now complete, he said in his letter of resignation.

"Outstanding" Job
Ryan said Pauley had done an "outstanding" job in promoting efficiency in the new department of the army.

Pauley, a California oil man who once was Democratic national treasurer, was summoned by the senate appropriations committee this year to explain his commodity market trading which he conceded had netted him more than $400,000 profits in the last two years.

No "Inside" Data
The committee wanted to know if Pauley used any "inside" information obtained from his government contacts. He swore he hadn't.

Two years earlier Pauley was up for confirmation as undersecretary of the navy. After long and bitter arguments over his attitude toward the ownership of oil under title, Pauley asked the President to withdraw his name.

Divorce Asked in Marriage of Year

End of marriage of slightly more than a year's duration was sought Saturday in a divorce action filed against Kenneth Ridinger by Jessie Ridinger.

Ridinger, according to his wife's complaint, was discharged from the navy recently. She charges that while on furlough in the service "he drank continuously" and "often while in a drunken condition beat her until she was afraid to be alone with him."

The couple, who were married Jan. 11, 1947, in Reno, Nev., have no children or community property, the complaint states. Mrs. Ridinger also asked that her maiden name be restored. Her attorney is J. A. Sherkey.

Last Rites Held For Peter Meline

BURLEY, Feb. 7 (AP)—Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Unity LDS church for Peter Meline with Bishop J. E. Crane officiating.

Musical numbers were furnished by a double mixed quartet. Samual Banner gave the opening prayer. A. T. Gre, J. Fred Adams and Bishop Crane were speakers. Alfred Crane gave the benediction.

Burial was made in the Burley cemetery with Morris E. Baker officiating the grave. Burial was given by Lloyd Gunderson, Howard Halford, Soren Nilsson, Gordon Nilsson, Noel Equist and Ronald Equist. Services were in charge of the Unity Relief society.

Local Firm to Offer Home Milk and Cream Pasteurizer

The continued spread of milk-borne diseases, caused by using raw milk for drinking and cooking purposes, is a growing black spot on the U.S. public health record.

Although the pasteurization process was developed many years ago, and is recognized by physicians and bacteriologists as the only absolutely reliable method of removing harmful, disease-carrying bacteria from milk, the benefits of this protection have not been available to a large percentage of our population.

Use of Raw Milk Increases Disease
Stringent health measures have made protection by pasteurization available in the big cities. But until recently, pasteurization equipment has been too expensive to be practical for use in homes. As a result, there has been a constantly increasing number of victims of undulant fever, typhoid fever, throat, tuberculosis, and typhoid fever among families who use raw milk for drinking and cooking purposes.

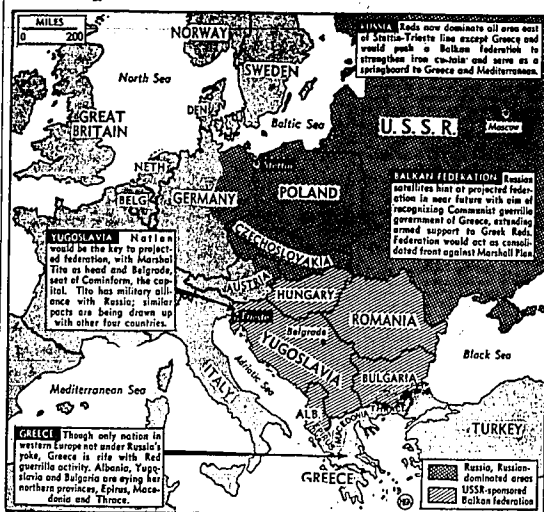

Now, the introduction of a home pasteurizing unit which combines the scientific accuracy of the big commercial units with a price that even family budgets makes it possible for everyone to enjoy the same protection as people who live in large communities.

Safeguard Unit Gives Protection
After extensive research and tests, the Guard-I Manufacturing Company of Chicago has developed a gallon "family size" electric milk and cream pasteurizer. Known as the SAFEGUARD Home Milk and Cream Pasteurizer, it pasteurizes for about 10¢ a gallon.

The unit operates on an ordinary 110-volt, 60 cycle line, and provides automatic timing and temperature control, and uniform heating, agitation, and cooling features that are comparable to commercial units. Everywhere, it has received an enthusiastic response from health authorities and colleges after being submitted to exhaustive laboratory tests.

The Mountain States Implement Co., 130 Second Ave. South, has just secured the local franchise for the SAFEGUARD Home Milk and Cream Pasteurizer and now has units on display at their store.

Europe Faces Threat of Balkan Federation

A fleeing member of the Romanian royal family reported that King Michael was forced to abdicate to communists after their projected Balkan Federation. Such an economic, political and military alliance in southeastern Europe would include the four Balkan states of Romania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Albania and their Danubian neighbor, Hungary. Map above shows some of the highlights of such a federation, which is one of the basic aspects of present Soviet foreign policy.

Widespread Korean Sabotage Pushes U. N. Panel Departure

SEOUL, Korea, Feb. 7 (AP)—Widespread sabotage of rail traffic and telegraph communication lines was reported today—incidents regarded by U. S. authorities as pressure to force the United Nations commission to leave Korea.

Handbills circulated throughout south Korea called for a general strike. Two notices delivered to Lieut.-Gen. John R. Hodge, U. S. occupation commander, warned of a three-day strike to force the commission's departure.

The commission voted yesterday to refer back to the U. N. Security Assembly the problem of conducting preliminary to Korean independence. Russia's refusal to permit entry into north Korea has stumped the commission.

The U. S. army, which occupies south Korea, reported a 12-car train was derailed about 30 miles east of Seoul, and that trucks were damaged elsewhere in five places. Gauges, valves and drive rods were removed from 40 locomotives. Telephone lines from Seoul were cut in many places.

The army announced 22 persons had been arrested.

"All along," said Hodge, "I've been expecting physical efforts to sabotage the work of the commission."

He added, however, that no troop alert was planned because "there is nothing to indicate that Korean authorities can't handle the situation at present."

Meanwhile, the commission went into executive session to consult with Hodge.

Commission Chairman K. P. S. Menon of India plans to fly next week to Lake Success to report to the United Nations. Whether he would recommend elections only in south Korea—as suggested by some members of the commission—was not disclosed.

Industry for Area of West Is Canvassed

A clear, complete picture of the current industrial situation in the eight mountain states, recording the vast changes which have occurred since 1939, will be presented in the tabulations of the 1947 census of manufacturers, to be taken early this year, according to word received from Director J. C. Cap, bureau of the census department of commerce.

In 1939 there were 4,011 manufacturing establishments in the eight mountain states. Montana had 533 establishments, Idaho 549, Wyoming 310, Colorado 1,238, New Mexico 272, Arizona 332, Utah 561, and Nevada 109. The value of products manufactured in the eight states amounted to $18,833,000. Of this total, Montana accounted for $10,853,000, Idaho $4,075,147, Wyoming $45,423,103, Colorado $21,842,668, New Mexico $23,121,691, Arizona $97,553,941, Utah $107,172,292, and Nevada $30,561,713.

The questionnaire, which was mailed to all United States manufacturers in January, was developed with the aid of industry in a series of conferences over the last three years. Information will be obtained on production, employment, wages, materials consumed, expenditures for plant and equipment, inventories, and related items.

Since the 1947 census of manufacturers is being conducted primarily by mail, Director Cap urged all manufacturers to return their completed questionnaires promptly in order to speed up the availability of the results and keep the costs down.

"Follow-up by mail, telegram, and visit by field personnel are costly," Director Cap said. "Cooperation by manufacturers in mailing their questionnaires promptly will cut costs as well as speed publication of the results. Early publication of the results of the 1947 census of manufacturers will enhance their value and give business vital information badly needed to meet current conditions."

Director Cap pointed out that reporting in the census of manufacturers, which dates back to 1810, is mandatory. He emphasized that the same law which requires reporting also requires that all industries and reports and figures submitted to the census bureau be held in strict confidence. Information obtained is not to be used for regulation, investigation, or taxation because the census bureau, under the law, cannot reveal individual figures or personal information to any person or agency, even in the federal government.

Steel Gray Market Operating a Cinch; Just Get Phone, Change and Numbers

By MARCO J. PARSONS
NEW YORK (REAP)—All it takes to be a gray market operator is a telephone booth and a stack of nickel, dime and quarter—1-cent if it's a nickel. Whether you make the fabulous profits rumored in gray market deals in steel, nails, barbed wire, doors, window frames and other materials is another question.

An official of an independent steel company knows the names of several "dealers" who reportedly could supply me with steel.

"We know who most of them are. There is nothing illegal in what they are doing although it isn't what I would call ethical business. We watch them closely to check off their source of supply whenever possible."

I set up my "office" in a bar and grill on New York's Eighth avenue. My first call was to an unlisted number in a city in Pennsylvania.

"I have a principal who needs 50 tons of sheet, 20-21 gauge, hot or cold rolled. Can you supply 10? I can use 500 tons more if I can get it but I need the 50 tons immediately."

"If I haven't got anything, I'll call this morning. How did you get my name?"

"The key does to your organization," said you could get me steel. I told him, "I prefer not to name him."

"Let me have 300 pieces of 12 gauge sheet, at $11.50 a hundred."

"That's $750 a ton, about $170 over the mill price including extras. It is also too heavy for many fabricating uses such as refrigerators, stoves and 'wreathes'."

"It's a little high for my principal but I'll try him and call you back."

"Where can I get you if I find some lighter stuff?" I gave him the number of the pay phone in the restaurant.

Then I thumbed through the ads of a trade journal until I found one that read: "Wanted: 14-28 gauge hot or cold rolled, any quantity," and the number of the owner listed the phone.

"I have 300 pieces of 12 gauge at $11.50," I told my prospect. That would have made me about $95 on my two phone calls.

"Is your steel in New York?" he asked.

"No, it's down in Pennsylvania," I told him.

"The price is too high and it's too heavy for our present customer. If your supplier can cut the price some let me know and maybe we can handle it. But we will want immediate delivery. We're tired of chasing ghost loads. We represent 18 fabricators. Keep us in mind for anything you can get."

Actually, industry spokesmen say, there is very little steel available for gray market deals. Every big steel company and many of the smaller ones carefully allocate their products to legitimate customers who use it in manufacturing.

Occasionally some manufacturer without much regard for his own reputation will sell steel at a discount for a big profit rather than use it. But these are the exceptions, the industry believes.

Talks of million-ton deals are mostly just talk. One manufacturer explained it this way:

"A factory manager, short of steel, will contact a broker to buy 10,000 tons. The broker sends him a list of 10,000 tons he drops out and the available even if he is a perfectly legitimate operator. So he will begin calling other brokers. Say he calls 10 and these 10 don't have it either, so they each call 10 others. The first thing you hear is that there is in the market for a million tons. If the guy gets anything near his original 10,000 tons he drops out and the word gets around that there's been a cleanup."

Hagerman Dedicated First of Area Libraries Back in 1898

By BETTY ALAUZE
FIFTY years ago on Feb. 1, 1898, the little frontier town of Hagerman dedicated the first public library in Magic Valley with an oratorical contest.

Charlie Reeves, the Hagerman teacher during 1897 and 1898, organized the library with the help of the entire student body, 34 pupils of grade school, and the students are now among the oldest residents of southern Idaho.

By the influence and help of James Gunn, a territorial representative from Idaho in the United States congress, valuable books and records were contributed to the library. From Washington's Smithsonian institute came 100 first-edition volumes on the Indians of North America. All acts, debates and reports pertaining to Idaho before its statehood in 1890 were given to the library by Gunn.

As a result of the donations of James Gunn, the library was named the James Gunn Memorial Library. The library served Hagerman valley for 10 or 15 years after its founding, but about 1900 most of the volumes had disappeared.

Reeves, now one of Idaho's oldest practicing lawyers, said that on the 50th anniversary of the Gunn library he wanted the people of Magic Valley to know what was done by pioneers in the interests of education to they will not be forgotten.

An oratorical contest for public school children, the first contest ever held in this area, celebrated the opening and dedication of the library.

As the contest was open to any school which wished to enter, 200 to 300 people were present with contestants coming from Little Wood river, American Falls, Glens Ferry, Bellevue and Shoshone in home-drawn buckboards and wagons.

Smiling, Reeves said that was one contest where Twin Falls, Burley and Buhl did not compete.

Three outstanding citizens were chosen as judges for the contest. A Mrs. Seacor was selected as a judge because she taught, in 1893, the first public school in Hagerman valley. Wood river, were named winners. Miss Sims and Annie Curran, daughter of John Curran, had the prize, but Curran withdrew her daughter's name and declined to vote.

Five Seekers Of GOP Nod Head to Race

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Five men mentioned for the Republican presidential nomination are headed into contests for convention delegates in five of the state primaries to be held in the next few months.

There may be more competition, depending on whether there is more than one entry in other states before deadlines for voting.

There are 14 state primaries in all during the next five months. They will give the Republican voters a chance to express their preference in some states by voting directly for a candidate. In others the expression is made through election of delegates.

Few Are Binding

Few of the preference ballots are binding, but they give a fair idea of the standing of various candidates in certain localities and have an influence in the national convention.

A total of 450 of the convention's 1,004 delegates will be elected in the primaries, the rest by state conventions and party committees.

So far, indicated primary contests are in 15 of the 48 delegates. The 115 will be contested for in New Hampshire (6), Wisconsin (27), Nebraska (16), Ohio (53), and Oregon (10).

Contestants Listed

The contestants: Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, New York, the 1944 GOP nominee; Sen. Robert A. Taft, Ohio; former Gov. Harold E. Stassen, Minn.; Gov. Earl Warren, Calif.; and Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The latter is the only one of the five who has not announced his availability.

The primaries run from March 9 in New Hampshire to June 1 in California and South Dakota. New Jersey's had been set also for June 1 but the date probably will be advanced to April 20.

Up to Snuff

ELKO, Nev., Feb. 7 (AP)—Elko residents think so much of Actor-Crooner Bing Crosby they appointed him honorary mayor today and let him sweep a couple of streets, collect some garbage and direct traffic where U. S. highway 40 passes through the center of town.

Ranchers and cow-pokes from 100 miles around gathered here for the celebration highlight when Crosby appeared on the balcony of the Ranch Inn hotel to take the oath of office. The old groaner from Hollywood is a longtime favorite and neighbor of Elko residents. He owns a 14,000-acre ranch 50 miles north of here, complete with little dogs and empty saddles in the corral.

Crosby will become Nevada's first honorary mayor in history unless a move by Winnemucca, a smaller town to the west, manages to proclaim another "younger, more progressive man" honorary mayor "in absentia" first.

Winnemucca is awaiting an answer from Hollywood where it sent a telegram offering the honorary post to another and more slender crooner, namely Frank Sinatra.

Crosby laughed at the news of his Winnemucca rival when it reached his ranch.

"I wouldn't have enough blood to survive in this high altitude," Der Bingo said. "Winnemucca, 2,500, are nearly 6,000 feet above sea level."

"Besides, there's six inches of snow out here. Sinatra would freeze to death."

Power Dearth Until '54 Seen For Northwest

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 7 (AP)—Power supply in the Pacific northwest can not cover the demand until 1954 even if construction of new facilities goes ahead at full speed, Paul J. Davis, Bonneville power administrator said yesterday.

He predicted a "critical power situation" in the northwest by next winter with the peak demand possibly 250,000 kilowatts above the supply.

4,000,000 KW Program
A construction program was recommended to provide additional 4,000,000 kilowatts which would nearly meet the demands of the area unless an expanding aluminum industry requires still more power. Projects included in the construction plan were:

Installation of 11 generators at Grand Coulee dam.
Installation of generators at Hungry Horse dam by 1932, McNary dam by 1933, Detroit dam by 1935, Meridian dam by 1934 and Anderson Ranch dam on the Boise river by 1942.

Pallades Listed
Construction of dams and installation of generators at Albert falls in northern Idaho; Pallades, Upper Lower Scraper and Garden valley in the Upper Snake river basin in Idaho; Foster creek on the Columbia; Hills creek in the Willamette valley and Lower Monumental on the Lower Snake river basin.

Parley Ended
LEWISTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—The Northwest Public Power association closed its three-day semi-annual meeting yesterday with a declaration on federal power policy and resolutions urging construction of Albert falls dam in northern Idaho, defeat of the Rockwell bill to increase power costs and increasing appropriations for the McNary dam.

Idaho Ranks 43rd In Incorporations
BOISE, Feb. 7 (AP)—Idaho ranks 43rd among the states of the nation in new business incorporations filed during 1941, J. D. (Coy) Price, secretary of state, said today.

Figures compiled by Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., show that there were 320 articles of incorporation filed in Idaho in 1941 compared to 380 in 1940.

Only states with fewer corporations recorded were New Mexico, North Dakota, South Dakota, Vermont and Wyoming.

Price said Idaho's figure for new corporations was "favorable" considering the population of the state.

Five kinds of cockroaches are found frequently in American homes.

BOISE, Feb. 7 (AP)—Finance, school reorganization and legislative problems were discussed here last night by 25 class "A" school administrators from over southern Idaho.

Assessments Rate Will Be Parley Topic

Representatives of Idaho's wholesale and retail merchants have been called to a meeting in Boise Feb. 23 to discuss ad valorem tax assessments, Harry Ecock, Twin Falls, president of the Idaho State Chamber of Commerce, said Saturday.

Ecock said the meeting is sponsored jointly by the state chamber and the Associated Taxpayers of Idaho, Inc.

"The objective of the meeting," said Ecock, "primarily is to clarify what many believe to be confusion about the basis of valuation for assessment purposes in Idaho."

Ecock said the representatives would try to determine how property should be assessed.

"In other words," he said, "are assessments required by law to assess at 100 per cent of value, or some percentage of value, and if so, how is value to be determined in the first place?"

Ecock said that until there is complete agreement by assessors, the state tax commission and the general public on valuation there "can be no effective equalization of assessments."

The chamber president said the meeting will be a "work" session and not for purposes of protest.

"World Day of Prayer" Is Scheduled for Friday

Women from the various Twin Falls Protestant churches will take part in the program for the annual "world day of prayer" to be observed on Friday, Feb. 13, at 2:30 p.m. at the Twin Falls Episcopal church.

The day of prayer is sponsored by the United Church of Christ Women. The program for this year's service was prepared by three women from the general world-day-of-prayer committee, which is international and general.

On previous years the programs have been written by women from Canada, Africa, Cile, England, Holland and other countries. Last year's program was taken at a Christian woman of India.

This year marks the 33rd year of the observance of world day of prayer, to be observed by Christian women throughout the world all using the same program material.

The offerings that are taken at these meetings are used for Christian literature for women and children all over the world, for Christian colleges for women in many countries, to assist foreign students in our country and for religious and social ministry to our own minority or underprivileged groups in the United States.

Every woman is cordially invited to attend the 1948 world day of prayer meeting.

Mrs. Agnes Hopper was hostess at this week's meeting. Following the reading of an article in keeping with the theme of the day, the Y-Teen adult council was postponed due to the absence of a quorum.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Juanita Markham.

A delegate will be selected to attend this convention. It is found that any member is willing to take the time to make the trip.

Truman Aide Given Rebuff On 'Mistake'

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Major Harry H. Vaughan, President Truman's military aide, announced his own promotion, but it turned out to be all a "misapprehension."

In a few hours he was right back where he started.

The general told the press his new job was chief armed forces aide to the President, with three assistants.

This got into the papers.

Reported Called

Several hours later, Presidential Press Secy. Charles G. Ross called White House reporters to his office. Speaking, he said, for Mr. Truman, Ross told them:

"There is no change in the White House setup as announced earlier in the day. There seems to have been some misapprehension."

What happened, Ross said, is that the appointment of Col. Robert H. Landry of New Orleans as air forces aide gives the President a total of three aides.

Are All Equal

All Ross said with emphasis, are of equal rank. "There are no chief aides," he said.

The three are Landry, Vaughan and Capt. Robert L. Denison for the navy.

Vaughan took the news of his non-promotion with an air of good-natured bewilderment.

He said he thought when he made his announcement that the President had elevated him.

Not Sore at Anybody

He said he wasn't sore at anybody.

Then he went away smiling as if he thought the promotion might yet be in the cards.

The brawny, 58-year-old general has been a close friend of President Truman since they underwent army training together during World War I.

He has been, at times, one of the most-quoted men in Washington. It was he who let out the news that the President swims with his glasses on.

He also was quoted as describing Winston Churchill in a public speech as "a garrulous old gentleman."

Brochure of Buhl Commerce Group Ready for Mailing

BUEHL, Feb. 7.—Seven thousand copies of Buhl's 20-page brochure are available for mailing from the office of the Chamber of Commerce, Wayne Hancock, secretary, announced at a recent C. O. C. meeting.

Qualities were described and prepared for publication by the Idaho Power company from copy supplied by C. O. Merrill, who made an initial survey of the entire Magic Valley three years ago. Cost of the brochure was $1,000.

Plans are going forward for the annual banquet and election of officers on March 1.

Members of the highway committee report a favorable reception by the Buhl highway commissioners to a proposal to reduce the number of curves in the three turns in U. S. highway 30 between Buhl and Blainville grade.

Buhl's Valuation Upped by $200,000

BUEHL, Feb. 7.—With a valuation of $146,287, according to official notices from the county auditor as received by City Clerk Bernard Slary, Buhl's valuation for 1947 has increased by almost $200,000 over the previous year.

At the same time levy as that year, 35.6, the high valuation will increase Buhl city tax income by approximately $7,000.

Armed Forces' Disability Pay Too Generous, Solon Asserts

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Representative Eilston, R. C., said today he is convinced the armed forces are too generous with tax-free disability pay to retired regular officers.

Eilston is chairman of a house armed services subcommittee which is investigating the army-navy retirement system.

"It is quite apparent," he told a reporter, "that they have been applying a double standard as regards regular and non-regular officers."

"Now we are going to get down to cases on what they have done and how they do it. We are going to bring in some non-regular officers and hear from them."

The subcommittee has been studying the service retirement systems almost a year. Its first week of hearings closed yesterday. They will reopen Feb. 16.

Some former admirals and generals drawing tax-free disability pay are earning over $30,000 a year as civilians, Eilston said, and one admiral is making $125,000.

Maj.-Gen. John E. Dahlquist, the army's deputy personnel director, told the committee the army is merely following laws passed by congress.

Dahlquist recommended that officers and enlisted men be treated the same when disabled in service. Disabled enlisted men now receive pay according to the percentage of disability. It stops when the disability disappears.

Officers receive 75 per cent of the pay for the rank at which they retired, and they get it for life.

With the announcement of the transaction, Doc Holman said the name of the company has been changed to the "30" Cleaners.

The former owner of the company is Al Robinson, operator of a men's clothing store in Jerome.

The new plant manager, H. M. Jorgensen, said Saturday that additional machinery had been installed in the firm to provide rug cleaning, hat cleaning and fur staining services.

J. O. Robinson has been employed as the business manager of the plant.

RETURN TO HAILEY
HAILEY, Feb. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Miller have returned to Hailey to make their home. Miller has been attending a gunsmith school in Denver, Colo., for the last seven months.

Judge Hands 5-Year Term To Deserter

SEATTLE, Feb. 7 (AP)—Robert B. Massey, 31, who admitted in court he deserted from the army and then hid in hotel rooms four years while his mother supported him as a scrubwoman, was sentenced "at large" yesterday to two and a half years in a federal prison.

Judge Lloyd L. Black imposing sentence on a perjury conviction, also placed Massey on probation for two and a half years after his prison term.

He will not be permitted then to see his mother nor a sister without written permission from probation officials, Judge Black ordered.

At his arrest here in Feb. 1946, Massey denied he had ever been in the army. His mother obtained a writ of habeas corpus and he was released on bond and disappeared.

He was arrested again last Jan. 7 in Salt Lake City by the FBI.

Massey asked Judge Black yesterday to limit his sentence to probation, saying he was completely under his mother's influence during the four years and that she dictated his actions. He deserted at Fort Warren, Wyo. in 1943, spending the next four years in hotels in Washington, Idaho, Montana and Utah.

MOVES TO FOCATELLO
HAILEY, Feb. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Dale Christopherson have moved to Focatelto where Christopherson will join his brother, Gale Christopherson, as a student at Idaho State college.

How would you like to work with your feet parked on a magnificent police dog? We did just that, while visiting our friend, Edith, at her San Fernando valley ranch. Edith is an animal-lover, and now has seven police dogs of her own, not to mention a kennel full of other breeds running from a toy poodle to spaniels and a husky. Edith's dog share the ranch with the family and can be encountered anywhere from bathroom to terrace.

Major, a superb male with black and cream markings, struggles under the chain. Sometimes he is joined by Tina, a tan female. After seeing Edith and her charming Swiss husband train their pooches we decided to take our hands in when we get back to Cedar Draw, Rags and Laska.

The red Chow will probably fall into line—she began as a cat canine first—while her husband, Rags, comes from a long line of Idaho sheep-herding dogs and is as independent as the wind. We have some doubts about him.

Idaho seems to fascinate these swankier folk are interested in nothing but Sun Valley, the others want to know about our weather, radars, hunting and industry. "Good! I'm going to bring out a ranch with no telephone, no daily routine, no people," a doctor said wistfully.

"Could a person make a living on a ranch up there?" is one of the most familiar questions. Business men, teachers, professional people—they all have a hankering to leave this noise and smog for rural existence, and Idaho lures them. It's funny, because we get the idea that many Idahoans dream of life in California when they retire, or have enough money to migrate.

As for us—we live down here 24 years, and wouldn't move back for all the sunshine and citrus from Los Angeles to Palm Springs. The old sagebrush and lava of Idaho, with the sawtooth blue in the distance, has a lure nothing can equal.

Music Clinic Held by Students Representing 20 Magic Valley Schools

above shows the band unit which included 81 students. There were 71 students in the orchestra unit. Students rehearsed during the day-long session and presented a concert in the evening. Conductors were H. L. Fawson, Fawson, band director, and Charles L. Wilson, Nampa, orchestra director. (Bakers Studio photo-staff engraving)

Hypnotism Effect on Shrewish Wives Is Pondered by Boyle

NEW YORK, Feb. 7 (AP)—Husbands with shrewish wives have sometimes tried with the thought that life's treadmill would be more enjoyable if they could keep their wives under hypnosis.

Take it from Marshall Babbitt, a professional hypnotist—what is a bad idea. "A man will do better if he goes to his wife's love, he said."

On the other hand Babbitt—no relation to Sinclair Lewis—sees quite a future for hypnosis in curing people of bad habits, such as speech defects, stage fright, excessive drinking, overeating and nervousness.

"We also can alleviate pain and preoperative nervousness in dental patients," he observed, "so that they even can have a tooth extracted without taking an ordinary anesthetic."

Most intelligent people can learn to hypnotize themselves, Babbitt said, and added that it was little more difficult than piano playing.

In his essentials, that is, Proficiency is another matter.

"But the last thing I would want to do is teach the average person to neutralize nature's danger signal—pain. He might cure a pain in his side that way some night and die the next day of a ruptured appendix."

Babbitt once flew to North Carolina and hypnotized a 24-year-old Negro out of the belief that he was dying of a "heart" laid on him by a witch doctor.

"Since then many people have come to me to be cured of fears," he smiled. "Would be amazed by the number who believe in the evil eye."

Babbitt, 45, is a former salesman who took up hypnosis as a hobby in his youth. He recently has appeared on television shows. This week he staged a demonstration designed to show that he could

Silver Output Has Returned To '44 Level

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Production of silver in the United States increased 46 per cent in 1947 and returned to the 1944 level, the bureau of mines said.

Idaho led the states but Montana scored the year's greatest production gain, 52 per cent.

Copper Also Gains
The copper industry, meanwhile, reported gains of 30 per cent in mine production, 47 per cent in smelter output from domestic ore, and 58 per cent in refinery production.

Montana's silver production increased case making, the bureau said, from a marked gain in silver recovered from zinc-lead ores at the Butte Hill mine and dumps at the Anaconda Copper Mining company.

Buying Price Constant
The treasury buying price for domestically-mined silver remained constant at 90½ cents a fine ounce. Mine production of recoverable silver, by states:

RETURN FROM TRIP
FILER, Feb. 7—Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Jocelyn have returned from Nyasa, Ore., where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Jocelyn's sister.

Lincoln drafted a one-word reply: "Stamped."

Deserving Republicans got jobs from President Abe, but he refused to worry himself about details. One application he scribbled this nomination: "James R. Webster for something."

Lincoln had secretaries warn him of any letters that might make him mad. One such came from William P. Kellogg, later governor of Louisiana, who got turned down for a major diplomatic post and was indignant.

On the back Lincoln wrote: "I understand my friend Kellogg is ill-tutored; therefore, I do not read his letter."

"Forecast" Kaped
Probably the best, though, had to do with an application by one Francis L. Capen for a job forecasting the weather. Lincoln commented on April 25, 1863:

"He told me 3 days ago that it would not rain again till the 30th of April or the 1st of May. It is raining now and has been for 10 hours. I cannot spare any more time to Mr. Capen."

All the letters were selected by Percy Powell of the library of congress, at the request of Rep. Dondero, R., Mich. They were from the recently opened collection of Lincoln documents left by the President's son, Robert Todd Lincoln.

Dondero put them in the congressional record.

Old Abe Was No Slowpoke, Letters Show

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 (AP)—Abraham Lincoln lived in a home-and-buggy age but, when it came to getting things done, he could give lessons to many a modern push-button-and-servile-chair executive.

Letters endorsed by Lincoln in Civil War days, and published in the congressional record, show his talent for disposing of bothersome requests in a few witty well-chosen words.

Instances Told
Senator Washburne of Illinois got upset over the political situation in 1864 and sent a frantic appeal to the White House: "Have the soldiers started home at once?"

Lincoln drafted a one-word reply: "Stamped."

Bulgar Patriot Newest Victim Of Red Justice

BY J. M. ROBERTS, Jr.
 Dr. Dimitroff, one of Bulgaria's great patriots, is the latest victim selected for the drum-head court-martials which are called "trials" by George Dimitroff, Kremlin-appointed scribe of this troubled captive state.

Glicher, unlike his compatriot, Nikola Petkov, may just barely escape death. Dimitroff, under the caseload for this legal murder of Petkov, may think to allow himself a dispensary of justice with mercy by commuting the death sentence which the court is generally expected to hand down. But the course of the trial is a foregone conclusion. Glicher has been a power in the Bulgarian party for many years. He is a right-hand man of Alexander Stamboulsky, who bitterly opposed Bulgaria's alliance with Germany in World War I, then fought off both communist and rightist attempts to take over the country after the war. Glicher has been a power in the Agrarian movement ever since Stamboulsky was killed. He is a white attempt to halt a rightist coup in Sofia.

Carey Students To Present Play

BUT, Glicher's arraignment is taking the same form as that of Petkov. Several mysterious co-defendants were arrested with him. They can be expected to come forward with confessions whose principal purpose will be to convict Glicher.

These confessions will have been obtained in the usual way, which has been best described by Peter Koev, another Petkov lieutenant, who was one of the few men ever to go free after a communist "interrogation." Koev wrote Dr. G. M. Dimitroff about it. Dr. Dimitroff, former peasant leader, is now the antithesis of communist George Dimitroff the same name similarity.

Koev said he was kept in solitary on the "hunger treatment" for 21 days, then questioned continuously for five days while standing handcuffed, without food or water. After 12 hours rest, he was treated and beaten on the sole of the feet. Interrogations for four months. Pressure from his friends and his membership in the national assembly finally produced a temporary release.

Ordered Re-arrested
 The communists, however, were determined to make him sign a statement against Petkov. They ordered him re-arrested.

Before leaving the assembly for the last time he defied the communists to their faces.

"If it should happen later that, after a period of 'instruction' I should make some 'confession' they will have been extorted from me by means of violence."

But George Dimitroff in order to carry out the great communist plan for "liberation of peoples," must eliminate his opposition. Must have his one-party state. Order must be maintained behind the newly-established Soviet front, so as not to interfere with the work of advance units in France, Italy and the middle east who likewise seek to extend the Kremlin's form of "democracy."

Frances Langford Date-Seeker Jailed

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 7 (AP).—Getting a date with singer Frances Langford landed Byron Z. Cole in jail.

She told police he had pestered her with at least a dozen telegrams since last August, demanding money. When he telephoned today, she notified police.

They kept the rendezvous, too, and arrested Cole on suspicion of grand theft by larceny.

Miss Langford said she had never previously met the man.

The Indians called the Catalina mountains "Ontora" which has been translated, "Land in the Sky."

Return to U.S. Said Sure for Wright Plane

DAYTON, O., Feb. 7 (AP).—The Wright brothers' historic Kitty Hawk airplane seemed certain tonight to be returned to the United States by the British.

Col. E. Z. MacKintosh, former director of London's Kensington science museum which now houses the tiny craft, said he supposed the plane would be returned.

His statement in London followed discovery of two secret letters, one from Orville Wright, co-inventor with his brother of the Kitty Hawk; the second, a reply from MacKintosh.

Admits Getting Letter
 MacKintosh admitted receiving a letter from Wright in 1943. The co-inventor, said MacKintosh, declared he had decided to return his pioneer plane to the United States after the war.

The museum director replied with an acknowledgment the plane belonged in America and promised to ship it as soon as the course of World War II was an ocean crossing safe.

He said today the plane probably would be returned if Wright's letter "fits in with the terms of the will from a legal point of view."

Comment upon the museum's present director was not immediately available.

Flow Dec. 17, 1903
 The Kitty Hawk made its first flight Dec. 17, 1903, with Orville Wright at the controls. It was the first powered heavier-than-air machine to carry man aloft.

Wright's letter was dated Dec. 8, 1943, six years after he had written his will. The will gave the plane to England's museum, "unless before my decease I personally in writing have asked its withdrawal from the museum."

Colonel MacKintosh's reply was dated Jan. 15, 1944.

Army Successful In Try to Guide Rocket on Flight

WHITE SANDS, N. M., Feb. 7 (AP).—The first successful attempt to maneuver a V-2 rocket in powered flight was made at the White Sands proving grounds Friday, Capt. J. B. Dickey, public information officer reported.

The V-2 was equipped with an electronic guidance system that permitted the rocket to be maneuvered by ground radio, left and right, and up and down.

The missile reached a maximum altitude of 70 miles. Overall flight time was seven minutes, 32 seconds.

By changing the missile's aerodynamic stability on its downward course, the impact velocity was materially reduced, Captain Dickey said. This made possible the recovery of optical gear and other instruments.

When Wright's will was read, nothing was known of the letter. Rodney M. Love, a spokesman for the London museum, which received the plane in 1928 in a dispute between Wright and the Smithsonian Institution of Washington, over whether his ship or the Langley aerodrome was first to fly with a man, said only:

"We naturally had a great deal of correspondence in 20 years, but it was all confidential and we cannot say whether such a letter was received."

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

YES, TO US, IT'S TRULY A HAPPY BIRTHDAY - WE'RE TWO YEARS OLD THIS WEEK - Two Years in Business Here in Twin Falls . . . Come in and See How We Have Grown - Help us Celebrate - Meet Us All!

This week we celebrate the completion of our First two years in Business in Twin Falls. Two Years in which we've enjoyed a splendid business—meeting and making many friends and customers, to which we wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation. Our greatest wish on our birthday is that we have proven ourselves worthy of your confidence and patronage.

Starting with an organization, consisting of four people and one truck (for service and delivery) just two years ago . . . we have steadily grown until today we have a personnel of 13 steady full time employees. Our service and delivery fleet now consists of 4 trucks, as pictured here.

There Must Be A Reason — We Believe It's Service —

Realizing that any business is only as good as it's personnel—we have consequently been exceedingly careful in hiring help, to carefully and deliberately select our personnel with only the highest standards of character, personality and loyalty. Thus we are extremely proud of our personnel and the important part they play in the success of our business. Each and every one is fully aware of our policy and objective.

The picture here showing the front of our store, located at 150 Main Avenue North, next door to the Orpheum Theatre, does not show the large modern ANNEX, into which we have expanded. It is located in the rear and to the left of our main salesroom. This enlargement was made necessary by the ever increasing business we have enjoyed and the addition of more nationally famous lines of Appliances as they became available.

OUR PERSONNEL

SERVICE DEPARTMENT

Knowing the important part our service department must play toward our continued success, we feel fortunate in having as supervisor a man with the experience and ability of Mr. George Grow. He is pledged to see that our service policy is strictly enforced.

OUR POLICY -

Our policy has been and will continue to be—"Treat every customer, large or small, in the manner in which we would wish to be treated were we the customers. Honestly endeavoring to exemplify the true "The customer is always right" attitude at all times.
